SCIAA Middle School Baseball & Softball Championships

The SCIAA Middle School Baseball & Softball Championship Tournament was held this week at Kennedy Park. The great weather combined with great play made it a great week for baseball and softball.

The Lady Panthers of J.P. Freeman defeated Oakhaven handily, Bellevue in a close one and finally MAHS to claim the SCIAA Small Schools Softball Championship. Kathleen Sims lead J. P. Freeman from the mound and was voted the Most Valuable Player.

The Jaguars of A. Maceo Walker won a close couple of games versus MAHS and Bellevue to land them in the Championship game where they defeated a good Kingsbury baseball team to become the SCIAA Small Schools Baseball Champions. Xavier Mills was voted MVP by Coach Jimmie Taylor.

White Station Middle School's Lady Spartan Softball team won the SCIAA Middle School Large Schools Softball Championship by breezing through Highland Oaks, Hickory Ridge, and Cordova. White Station held all opponents to a combined 5 runs this season. Coach Amy Thornton couldn't decide between her two Most Valuable Players; Chloe Carter and Lucie Falcasantos.

The boys from Kate Bond Middle School took the SCIAA Large Schools Baseball Championship by defeating Ridgeway 5-1, winning a close one versus Colonial 2-1, and handily defeating the Red Devils from Germantown Middle School. Samuel Carter led the team as the Most Valuable Player
