SCIAA Recent Coaches' Meetings

The SCIAA recently hosted Winter Coaches' Meetings in preparation for the seasons. On September 15th all bowling, wrestling, and swimming coaches met at the SCIAA Auditorium for professional development. All middle and high school basketball coaches met the following Tuesday, September 22nd for their pre-season meeting. Ms. India Weaver opened both meetings SCIAA staff introductions including speakers. Mr. Michael Massey spoke to coaches about pre-participation physicals and how Well Child can help with their pre-season processes. Well Child is the leading physical provider for all of SCS and a great sponsor to the SCIAA. Jeri Rudolph from Risk Management discussed proper injury and accident reporting, transportation guidelines, and how to travel with your teams safely. Ms. Georgia Barry discussed the upcoming Mandatory NCAA Eligibility Workshops. At the basketball meeting, Mr. Wayne Dowdle from Lids TeamSports said hello and met with coaches after the meeting while Melonie with Creative Di-zigns donated special SCIAA t-shirts to a few lucky coaches. After the main meeting, each sport held breakout sessions to discuss the upcoming seasons. Bowling Coaches received their schedules and were informed about a new Thanksgiving Open. Swimming and Wrestling used the time to meet their coordinators and discuss important issues. Basketball Coaches discussed non-league games, district tournaments, and the SCIAA Championships. If you or your coach did not attend, please contact the SCIAA Office im-

SCIAA Middle School Football Championships

The middle school football season is nearing a close. The last regular season games will be played next week. First round games of the SCIAA Championship will begin Saturday, October 3rd at Kirby and Whitehaven Stadiums. Large school teams will play at Kirby Stadium while the small school teams will play at Whitehaven Stadium. Games are scheduled for 11:00 am, 12:30 pm, 2:00 pm, and 3:30 pm. Second round games will be played Thursday, October 8th at 5:30 pm and 7:00 pm. Championship games will be played Tuesday, October 20th at Whitehaven Stadium. Small schools will play at 5:30 with the large schools following at 7:00 pm. Look in next week's newsletter for complete brackets.
