Update from SCS Security

Attention Principals, Athletic Directors and Coaches,

As we near TSSAA playoff time we wanted to remind all SCIAA Schools that there is a cost to the home school for SCS Security. This includes all district and regional tournament sites including satellite games.

- SCSO (deputies) will not perform certain duties so SCS officers must be on site (ex: money boxes, wands, etc) to assist with those duties
- Security cannot chance school staff members being placed in a position of confronting an armed, violent or upset individual
- SCS Security will assess areas with neighborhood issues and this must be a consideration when staffing games w/ SCS officers
- SCS Security is making every effort to have a safe environment for staff, students, and spectators along with protecting SCS property

This advance notice may prevent any misunderstanding among school officials, coaches, AD's, and SCS Security Division.

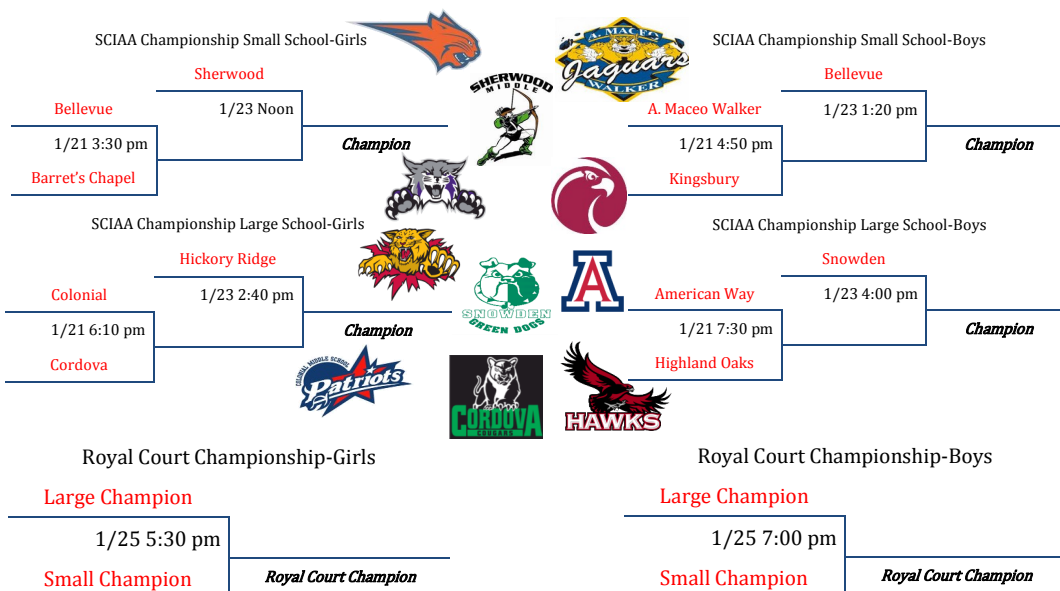

Your attention and assistance are appreciated greatly

Respectfully,

Steve Cole, Criminal Investigative Manager, Safety & Security

SCIAA Middle School Basketball Championships

Its Middle School Basketball Championship time and we have some of the best teams in the district participating this year. The teams are set and ready to play some of the best basketball of the year. All of the teams in the district have one common goal and that is to become the 2016 SCIAA Middle School Champion. On January 21st all games from then on will be played at the SCIAA Complex. The SCIAA Complex is located at 2601 Ketchum and will feature the Area Champions battling out against each other on the 21st and 23rd. On Monday, January 25th we will have the Large School Champion against the Small School Champion for The Royal Court Championship!
