SCIAA High School Girls Soccer Championship

The SCIAA High School Girls Soccer Championship games took place Wednesday, September 27th at Kirby Stadium.

The A-AA Championship game featured the Lady Pharaohs of Raleigh-Egypt and the Craigmont Lady Chiefs. Coach Doss took over at Raleigh-Egypt with a dedicated group of girls from last year and battled back to the SCIAA Championship game. Craigmont, under new leadership with Coach Alvin Wright, scored first on a PK and held their lead to take home the hardware. Kadedra Warren was named the MVP.

The Warriors of Central faced off with the Falcons from Kingsbury in the AAA Championship game. Coach Lydia Fusion and her young Kingsbury team struck first and never fell behind versus a strong, physical team from Central. #10 of Kingsbury, Kim Urqia, was named the Most Valuable Player.

Good luck to these teams and all of our SCIAA girls soccer teams as they continue in post season play.

SCIAA Middle School Football Playoffs

The SCIAA Middle School Football Championship series is upon us once again. This year SCIAA will kick the Championship series off with Super Saturday. Super Saturday will have two locations, Kirby Stadium and Whitehaven Stadium. Kirby Stadium will host the best teams in the Large School division. The teams to look out for are the Havenview Tigers who are two time TMSAA Sectional Champions, The White Station

Spartans who are TMSAA Sectional Champions, and the Germantown Red Devils. The most intriguing team in the Large School division is the Hickory Ridge Wildcats; they have a tough team and a veteran head coach. Whitehaven Stadium will host the best teams in the Small School division. Teams to watch: three time TMSAA Sectional Champions Bellevue Bobcats, Geeter Dragons, MAHS Lions, and JP

Freeman Panthers. The team to watch will be Mt. Pisgah. They are well coached and are synchronized but they have a tough first round battle with a tough Humes Preparatory team whose only loss came from Bellevue. Come out and enjoy some Middle School Football Saturday September 30th at Kirby and Whitehaven Stadiums starting at 11am.
