SCIAA Athletic Conference

The SCIAA Athletic Conference was held August 2nd at the SCIAA Office.

Athletics Manager, India Weaver presented on the State of the SCIAA. To build a better athletic program, the SCIAA has developed a vision, mission, and a set of core values. The vision of the SCIAA: "To champion the potential of every student-athlete in Shelby County." The mission of the SCIAA is to provide quality athletic environments and academic resources affording student-athletes, coaches, administrators and community the opportunity to grow socially, culturally and competitively by using sport as a vehicle to promote high standards of academic competence, character and citizenship. The SCIAA has set 4 core values. The core values of the SCIAA are: Improve continuously, Think progressively, Ensure equity, and Maintain integrity. All were updated on the Durham Transportation partnership with the SCIAA to provide transportation to all football jamborees at a discounted rate. Schools were notified of retired coaches payment process as well as New Coaches' Sessions for all sports. All new coaches will be required to attend a new coaches' session 30 minutes prior to preseason meetings. New Coaches' Sessions will begin with the Fall Coaches' Meeting, August 9th at 3:30 pm.

Lecia Schluterman presented her Coaching Character piece that will be included in all pre-season coaches meetings. The SCIAA will require all athletic directors and coaches to review the SCIAA Job Description for each position and read and sign the SCIAA Code of Conduct. These signed copies should remain on file at the school. Lecia introduced all to "The Code of Living". The Code was developed by Fred Northup and the "Athletes for a Better World" organization. The Code is a series of commitments as an individual, as a member of a team, and as a member of society. The SCIAA urges all athletic directors and coaches to incorporate The Code into their team and to use it as a tool to build a team. You can find a copy of The Code on the following page. Many SCS departments made presentations in the General Assembly including Risk Management, Volunteer Services, Security, Compensation, and Procurement.

In the first breakout session, the Financial Secretaries met with Tongela Taylor and other SCS district staff for professional development and a question and answer session. All athletic directors attended a Title IX informative session led by the Office of the General Counsel.

Marcus Taylor led the second breakout session on Fundraising. He moderated the panel discussion and ideas were shared throughout the audience.

After lunch, Kai Washington and Lecia Schluterman led the New Athletic Director's Meeting and Marcus and India Weaver led the Charter School Meeting. Thirteen vendors attended the 3rd Annual Vendors Expo. Attendees included Believe Kids, Champion Awards & Apparel, Precious Memories by Shawn, DigitalSports, Midsouth Solutions, Durham School Services, BSN Sports, Crown Trophy, Sports & Entertainment Medical Services, Creative Dizigns, Trigon Sports, Well Child, and SCS Nutrition Services. A big thank you for all of the vendors who supplied the door prizes throughout the conference.
