TSSAA Boys' Basketball Tournament

The SCIAA is proud to send 5 member boys' basketball teams to the TSSAA BlueCross Boys' Basketball Tournament next week. First round games will begin Wednesday March 14 at Middle Tennessee State University.

Douglass and MASE hope for a Championship matchup in Class A. They are on opposite sides of the bracket, so an all Memphis final can happen. But first Douglass has to defeat Clay County at 6:00 pm Wednesday while MASE, led by TSSAA Mr. Basketball Finalist Areckio Gipson, must win versus Monterey Thursday morning at 10:00 am. The SCIAA Champion, Hamilton Wildcats will be tough to beat in Class AA. They are sitting at 33-2 coming in to the tournament. They face Whites Creek Thursday afternoon at 1:15pm.

Memphis East hopes to add another gold ball to the trophy case while Whitehaven wants another shot at East for an upset! But first, Whitehaven must battle Powell Wednesday morning at 10:00 am. The East Mustangs, led by TSSAA Mr. Basketball Finalist Alex Lomax, begin their quest for third consecutive championship with a first round matchup with Blackman Wednesday afternoon at 1:15pm.

For complete tournament information, in game stats, and to purchase tickets visit <http://tssaasports.com/basketball/>. We will be there, hope to see you too!!

Germantown Touchdown Club up for Award

The Most Spirited Booster Club is a motivated group of parents who supports their school's athletic program with dedication and enthusiasm. This booster club works in cooperation with team coaches to make sure every student on the team has the resources necessary to succeed. This group can be counted on to fundraise, organize team events (dinners, banquets, etc.), attend games, and serve as positive role models to the students they serve.

Germantown High School is one of three finalists for the award given out in May at Walt Disney World National School Spirit Awards. GO RED DEVILS!!
