Middle School Baseball & Softball Championship

The Barret's Chapel Softball team was coached by Amber Adler. Charleigh Beth Cole was named MVP. Barret's Chapel went on to represent Memphis in the West TN Sectionals versus Three Oaks Middle School. The Wildcats ended their season as West TN TMSAA Sectional Runner-Ups.

The White Station Spartan softball team won their 4th SCIAA Championship in a row lead by MVP Reagan Fiore. Coach Amy Thornton has led the team to 7 championships as the head coach. The Spartans fell to Brighton in the West TN Sectional game.

The White Station Spartans, coached by Coley Thornton continued their dominance in the large division to seal their 4th SCIAA Championship in as many years. Ben Roan was selected as the MVP. The Baseball Spartans went on to defeat Munford 6-3 to be named the West Tennessee Sectional Champions. Their second TMSAA title in as many years.

The JP Freeman Panthers were led by their MVP pitcher, Galvin Sims in the championship game in May. Coached by Colin Rork, the Panthers finished their season with a tough loss to Three Oaks Middle School in the West TN Sectional Championship game.

High School Baseball & Softball Champions

Middle College, coached by Calvin Brown and Margarette Norris won the 2018 SCIAA Softball championship behind their MVP Kahmya White.

GRAD Academy coached by Timothy Moore, has won 4 straight SCIAA Softball Championships in two divisions. This year's team was young, lead by MVP Ellen Green but played for legacy.

The Whitehaven High School Tiger Softball team coached by Jason Harris is back to back District regular season champs and District Tournament Runner-Ups. They are fairly young team with the exception of 4 senior ladies who are a joy to work with and will be missed. Cordesia Williams was voted MVP by the team.

The Middle College baseball team finished the regular season with a 17-7-1 with an undefeated 10-0 record in district and key out of district wins including wins over Central, Kirby, and Southwind. Syncere Pruitt was named Most Valuable Player.

Since joining District 16AA, the Craigmont Chief's have gone 52-2 against district opponents while under the leadership of Coach Matthew Hester. The 2018 Chiefs went 16-6-1 in the regular season, with a 9-1 record against district opposition. The Chief's added their 3rd SCIAA championship in 4 years behind the senior leadership of MVP Kenny Harris and Kameron Hines, Jordan Dotson, Curley Baines, Eddie Riley, and Deandre Neyland.

The Germantown Red Devils Baseball team is coached by Casey Calloway. The MVP was short-stop and pitcher, Adams Flowers. They were put in many situations in which they thrived and even failed at times, and have learned from those situations. This was a season in which these young athletes made a lot of strides towards being successful young men.
