TSSAA Distinguished Service Recognition

From the TSSAA News January 2019
TSSAA is proud to recognize Mark McDonald as its distinguished service honoree as an administrator. Mark has been the athletic director at White Station High School since 2007. Under Mark's leadership as athletic director, White Station was the 2009 TSSAA State Football Champions. Also in 2009, White Station was the TSSAA State Boys' Basketball Champions. Since Mark has been the athletic director, the boys' basketball team has also finished as the state runner-up and the boys' track team has also won a state title. In addition to Mark being an outstanding athletic administrator, he has worked numerous TSSAA Girls' and Boys' State Basketball Tournaments as an official. He has also worked the state baseball tournament as one of the top umpires. Mark has also officiated at the college level in basketball and baseball. TSSAA proudly salutes Mark

McDonald for his many contributions to the students and athletes in the State of Tennessee.
