How to Become a Better Leader-Don Kelbick

Being a leader is not an easy thing to do. I believe that leaders are born, not made, but we all have potential to lead. It is when we try to lead as others lead that some of us get into trouble. Here are 4 ways that you might be able to bring that leadership potential to fruition.

Be yourself.

You are who you are and anything else is a lie. People can see right through lies. Be happy with who you are and believe that be what is necessary to gain the faith of those who need to follow you. If you speak in someone else's voice or actions, you surely will push them away.

Leadership is a lifestyle.

Hypocrisy and leadership do not mix. The days of "do as I say, not as I do" are gone. In today's technologically advanced and "YouTube" world, people know what you are doing. You don't need to be a perfect person, just a responsible one. Stand up for what you do and say. Take responsibility for your actions and try to make them positive. Live your beliefs.

Be a communicator.

Find ways to interact. The image of a "quiet leader" or one who "leads with actions, not with words" are fallacies. A leader, by definition, is in front. You cannot lead if others don't see. You don't have to be a yeller or a screamer to be a leader, but you can't be a shrinking violet either. You have to be able to take the ups and downs, the good and bad of leadership. Things don't always go well for you or others. Let others know you are with them in good times and bad. Be consistent in your treatment of others. Let them know you care.

Allow others to follow.

Everything in life is volitional. People make choices based on what is best for them. Nobody buys into anything because you want them to. Do and say the things that you believe in. The ones that believe the same way will follow you. Those that don't, won't. There is nothing you can do about that. Just keep doing what you believe in. It is important to understand that, more than anything else, the things that makes the best leader is good followers.

SCIAA Thanksgiving Bowling Open

The Annual SCIAA Thanksgiving Bowling Open is scheduled for Monday, November 19th at 4:00pm at Winchester Bowl. The SCIAA will be collecting canned foods to donate to the Mid-South Food Bank in honor of the Bowling Open being held on Thanksgiving week. This day is an exciting day for the High School Bowling Teams as they get to compete in a Bowling match against a team outside their district, but we will also hold a contest for which school can bring the most canned goods.

We are urging all schools to join their Bowling Team and collect non-perishable canned goods to bring to the match. If your school does not have a bowling team and you would still like to donate, please bring your donation to the SCIAA Office located at Airways Achievement Academy (2601 Ketchum rd.) before November 19th. We look forward to exceeding our goal of 1000 cans this year!
