SCIAA Middle School Football Championships

The 2019-2020 Middle School football season came to a close last night after the SCIAA All-Star Football Game.

The SCIAA held the 2019 Middle School Football Championship on October 22nd at Crump Stadium.

The Small Schools Championship kicked off at 5:30 pm with the Bellevue Bobcats facing off with the Tigers from Humes Middle School. The two teams faced off earlier in the year in an epic triple overtime game.

Bellevue was victorious in that game and Humes did not forget. Humes' Coach Chaz Wiseman discussed before the game that his team had to play disciplined football and not let the emotions from the heartbreaking loss cause them to lose focus. The Tigers did just that. Defensively they held Bellevue to just 1 touchdown. Offensively, MVP Keyshawn Poole, led the offense to score 30 points, the most Bellevue allowed all season.

Humes Middle School won the SCIAA Championship which qualified them for the Sectionals.

On Saturday, October 26th Humes hosted Inman Middle School. The Tigers came out in the rain with a mission for a win. They dominated the first three quarters with a 22-0 lead going into the final period. Inman put together two strong drives, but the Tigers held fast and delivered the win 22-14. Humes Middle School brought home the 2019 West TN TMSAA Sectional Championship for small schools.

Havenview Middle School returned to the SCIAA Large Schools Championship game this year to face the Red Devils of Germantown.

Germantown came out strong in the first quarter but the Tiger defense held their ground only allowing one score, that effort earned the entire defensive unit the Most Valuable Player(s) Award. Offensively, Havenview did what they have done all season...dominate! Led by William "H" Carver, the offense moved down the field effectively and efficiently. Havenview's win at the SCIAA Championship also qualified them for the TMSAA Sectional Championship.

The rain in the area delayed the Sectional game to Tuesday, October 29th at Haywood County. Coach Derrick Bobo and the Tigers of Havenview traveled to Haywood High School to face the Tomcats of Haywood Middle School.

The game started off slow offensively but the Tigers were able to go into halftime with a 14-0 lead. They added 1 more touchdown and with a 20-6 score at the end of the game, Havenview earned their third consecutive West TN TMSAA Large Schools Sectional Football Championship.
